Owing to a runaway about a year ago, my son was thrown from a wagon and severely hurt about the head. For many days he was entirely bedridden and unable to move, and needed constant watching. At this time I learned of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic and at once ordered a bottle.
After I had given him the second dose he fell into a quiet sleep and ceased raving. The next day he was much better, and when he had used up the contents of the bottle he was entirely restored and is so still. FRED DERSHWIL.

FOR SHERIFF,
Clayton L. Woodward.

FOR CIRCUIT CLERK,
Septimus T. Stevens.

The hardest wish we have for the most delinquent of delinquent subscribers is that he might have to perambulate over the plank walks of Hartford as our citizens of necessity must do.

Ed. P. Crowe, with his brother, Rev. Jno. M. Crowe, has established the Methodist Advocate at Skelton, Mo. Ed. is a brainy young fellow, and is achieving well-merited success in his new field.

"The eighth and greatest wonder of the world," is what the World's Fair buildings and grounds, even in their present incomplete condition, are pronounced by Major Woods, Executive Commissioner of the Connecticut World's Fair Board.

HENRY P. CHEATHAM, the colored Representative from North Carolina and the only one in the House, in pleading for the appropriation for a negro exhibit at the World's Fair, made about the best five minute speech of the session. But, of course, the Democratic House declined to pass the appropriation.

An establishment has been incorporated in Ohio for the manufacture of buttons. If you hear anything about this in Democratic newspapers it will be coupled with the assertion that it is started for campaign purposes. But, as the incorporation fee in Ohio is a per cent. on the capital stock, it costs money to incorporate an enterprise, and is not done for fun.

A WHOLE day of last week was consumed by the House trying to correct a Democratic speech: a speech never made on the floor of the House, but juggled into record under the permission "to print." Even then it did not succeed in accomplishing the feat. The cost of the time consumed in this abortive proceeding was something more than $5,000. Inefficient stupidity, thy name is—Democracy!

The town trustees are about applying for a patent on the plank walks in certain parts of town. It is not certain to what member the honor of the invention is due, or whether it is the fruit of a great mental effort on the part of the whole board in regular session, but suffice it to say that it is to be known as the Combined Neck-breaker and Shin-skinner and will only be used in towns where the people are very forbearing like our people are, for such machines would not be tolerated anywhere else in the whole world save Hartford.

ANOTHER frightful railroad wreck is added to the already long list. This time, however, it is close to home, and hence created greater excitement than those of a similar nature farther away. On Sunday morning a passenger train from Russellville and an excursion train from Owensboro collided near South Carrollton, literally ruining both trains, killing five passengers and wounding twenty-five others. The whole loss of life and property is due to the mistake in regard to when the change in the time table took effect and the rashness of the conductor on the excursion. He attempted, we learn, to run from Island to South Carrollton, a distance of nine miles, in seven minutes, when he was warned not to do it, and when he knew the other train was dashing down in his direction. We understand that he pleaded for poison to end his life when he saw the fruit of his recklessness. It is estimated that $200,000 will not pay the expense of the company, necessitated in consequence of the wreck.

From the Herald's insinuations one would be led to believe that the quill-driver for that sheet is glad that the violators of law in Hartford have escaped without indictment. Such a feeling is fully in keeping with this abettor, defender, colleague and cohort of this disorderly element in our midst. Now, the truth is, and he knows it, that the Grand Jury was completely disgusted with the gross perjury of those complicated in the Blind Tiger business, and that to this is to be attributed the failure to make indictments and not that there is no violation of law. The editor of the Herald knows as well as anyone that those violations exist and they also know that did the law and order element of society know the minutiae of these violations, the offenders would be brought to justice. But so long as these violators and their henchmen swear lies, and are pandered to by a paper, that claims to be the only "reliable" paper in the county, who is surprised that indictments are not found and that they continue to break the law?

AND all the wrangling discussions, over the political bombast just opening there steals now and then, over the mind of the average citizen of

THE TWO GREAT LEADERS OF REPUBLICANISM.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

JAMES G. BLAINE.

The Minneapolis Convention is on, with these two the principal contestants, with a probability for a dark horse. As the matter stood yesterday the chances were rather in Harrison's favor, but nothing definite can now be determined.

Hartford, the thought that there are at least a few things at home that need attention as well as those far away. A town with all the advantages which our own loved Hartford possesses, intelligence, refinement, wealth, educational advantages would seem to merit, at least in a moderate degree, the conveniences common in a town of its size. But fate, or somebody else, seems in this case, to have decided otherwise. The walks on certain streets are a disgrace to the town and an insult to our tax payers. If there is no money to build them, better go in debt than not have them at all. Hartford is not bankrupt—she can and will pay her honest debts, but her people do demand protection for life and limb when on the street, but this they can not have in some portions of town, owing to the terrible condition of the walks. They are absolutely dangerous in broad, open day, to say nothing of night. It will be remembered that not many weeks ago a young lady was crippled on the miserable walks while going to prayer-meeting; and the only wonder is that more people have not been crippled. In some places these walks have become so worthless and so treacherous that they have had to be thrown out of the way, and the citizens are compelled to take the ground for it, notwithstanding the rain and mud of the whole spring. When will it be remedied? We reckon the proper answer is, The good city dads only know.

OWENSBORO ITEMS.

June 6.—No little excitement was created on yesterday by the wreck on the O. & N. R. R. near South Carrollton. A colored excursion train leaving Owensboro collided with an incoming passenger and several lives were lost, as well as a number injured. A locomotive was sent out with physicians from this place at once, but no train could be secured till the arrival of the Falls of Rough from Louisville. It returned at 11 p. m. bearing not a jolly crowd of excursionists, but a train load of frightened people, thankful that so many escaped a horrible death. All of the colored population of the city, not aboard the train were gathered at the depot, anxiously waiting its arrival and the scene of tumult and lamenting then presented might be imagined a night in the "Reign of Terrors" though no blood-thirsty vengeance, or relentless Deform blocked the way, yet the passing of the wagons in the moonlight bearing their ever-silent passengers, might have been taken, in the surging crowd for the dreaded Tumblers taking the victims of La Guillotine to the grave. After suspension was ended the crowd turned its foot-steps towards the City, no doubt many of them with a lasting impression of one Sunday's excursion. The commencement exercises of the Owensboro Female College, began to-night. The exercises will be held in College Chapel. The annual address to the students was delivered by Dr. J. G. Bow, of Louisville, at the first Baptist Church last night. The City High School held no commencement, as a Hall of sufficient size could not be secured. Thirty-two young ladies and gentlemen took their diplomas. The five ranking highest of the graduating class were: Misses Anna Delker, Nannie Terrill, Hilda Heilbron, Cecilia Gilliland and Ona Smith.

J. A. Rowe and wife, of Big Sandy Tenn., but formerly of Hartford, visited friends in Owensboro last week.

U. S. Court is in session and no doubt some of the worthy "news dealers" who so delicately hinted at the dark doings of those in possession of the "spoils" are already sharpening their pencils for the woeful tales of fraud they promised the public. Among those in attendance from Ohio county are Capt. Wood Tinsley and C. R. Campbell. Intense excitement characterizes the political feelings of the body now and as a thunder-bolt, came the announcement of Mr. Blaine's resignation as Secretary of State. Even the ministers are sending up their petitions for deliberate action and a patriotic and wise choice, by the great assembly now convening. That Benjamin Harrison may be their choice is the wish of M. A.

BEAVER DAM.

June 7.—Mrs. Albert Murray Troutman, of Owensboro, visited her sister, Mrs. Buck Hudson of this neighborhood, last week. While here she was visited by quite a number of her former students and friends. It will be remembered that she was a very popular teacher in the Liberty neighborhood nine years ago.

James Poyner, of this place, returned from Chicago, where he had been attending a school of pharmacy.

Republican Speaking.

Rev. E. M. McMillin, of Lebanon, Ky., will address the people of Breckinridge county at the Court House in Hardinsburg on Monday the 20th, inst., on the political issues of the day, from a Republican standpoint. Speaking to commence at the usual time for public speaking. Mr. McMillin is a gifted and eloquent speaker, let the public come out and hear him.

Resolutions of the Grand Jury.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to remove from earth on Monday, May 30, 1892, the little daughter of our worthy Grand Jurymen at the present term, J. M. Whitehouse; therefore be it RESOLVED, That we, the members of said Grand Jury have the greatest sympathy for the bereaved family and bow submissively to the will of God, who doeth all things right and commend them to Him for comfort their sad bereavement.

RESOLVED, That these resolutions be published in the Hartford Herald and REPUBLICAN and a copy be presented to the bereaved family.

Done by order of the Grand Jury June 2, 1892. E. H. COOPER, Com.

FORDSVILLE.

June 6.—Miss Maudie Rossion, of Louisville, has been visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Miss Olive Howard is visiting near Philip.

Many friends await the return of Alva Jones from the Kentucky School of Medicine. I am glad to report that he has won the title of M. D.

Mrs. Alice Castled and W. H. Martin have just returned from Louisville where they have been to attend the funeral of their father.

Mr. Charles Wade and Miss Maggie Johnson were married at the residence of the bride's father, near town yesterday.

Another hotel is being erected at this place. Fordsville will once more do its general appearance. The new railroad is being located and work will begin soon.

A sanctified lady gave a temperance lecture at Poplar Grove on the 1st. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance was very small.

I will submit to the readers of the REPUBLICAN a question which was proposed to me some time ago: If it was possible for a train to run at cannon-ball speed and a cannon being placed on it muzzle back is fired, what will become of the ball? If the muzzle is placed forward then what will become of it?

Hoping to see the opinion of many on the above and wishing the REPUBLICAN success, I remain a silent friend.
